Dorky Dino's Art Show

Entry Form

What is the Art Show?

The Art Show provides an opportunity for attendees to showcase and sell their personal art creations at the convention.

Do I have to fill out the form even if I am not selling anything?

Yes. We need to keep track of all items and don't want to accidentally sell anything. This sheet is a record of your item in case the entry sheet itself is damaged or lost.

Selling Items

- To sell items, fill out the individual Art Show entry form at: <https://www.midwestgamefest.org/images/pdfs/art-show-form.pdf>
- You must have a convention badge to sell items or enter them into the art contest.
- Make sure the name, titles, etc. match the Art Show entry forms.
- Prices must be in 50-cent increments.
- There is a 20-item limit per sheet, and items must be suitable. Attendees can request multiple sheets.
- Items can be grouped as a bundle.

Checking Out and Getting Paid

Check out of the Art Show any time it is open but before 2pm Sunday. The Art Show is usually open 9am to 6pm, but sometimes longer depending on volunteer availability. Just go to the register in the Gamer Garage Sale room and ask to pick up your unsold items and to be paid for your sold items. We will pay you in cash, but payments via PayPal can be arranged.

DEADLINE 2 pm Sunday

All items MUST be picked up by 2 PM on Sunday. Make arrangements in advance if needed. Items left unclaimed become the property of The Role-players Guild of Kansas City, LTD, organizers of the convention.

15% Commission

Midwest GameFest keeps a 15% commission from your total sales to support the convention. Example: If the asking price for your sold items totals $25.00, you will receive $21.25, as MWGF keeps 15% ($3.75). Where possible we will round to the nearest quarter.

Fine Print

- All items are sold as-is, and Midwest GameFest takes no responsibility for any missing pieces, damaged, or otherwise undesirable items.
- All sales are final and not subject to refund.
- The convention staff will determine if an item, bundle of goods, etc. meets the requirements, and reserves the right to accept or turn away items that do not meet the criteria or break the spirit of the sale.
- Midwest GameFest takes no responsibility for products damaged, misplaced, or mislabeled at the Art Show. Midwest GameFest watches for shoplifting, sticker swapping, and other mischief but cannot guarantee security for your items.
